These changes have been posted on the website and will be discussed at a special business meeting during the February Sunday Night Service. Printed or digital copies are available upon request, as well as a copy at the Welcome Center for review. In the near future, we will have a Q&A session for further clarity of these changes. There will be a congregational vote at a business meeting on April 7 to approve the changes. To view the changes on our website, scroll over "Resources" at the top of the home page and select "Draft of New Constitution, Etc."
